Building Integrated Solutions for Businesses

The Governor's Conference on Minority Business Development will recognize and promote the achievements of Wisconsin minority-owned businesses. MARKETPLACE 2008 is a good opportunity for businesses to learn how to increase access to capital, and also showcase their unique products and services to government procurement officers and corporate buyers.

Important Benefits of MARKETPLACE 2008

- Financial prospecting opportunities for minority businesses interested in learning more about government-supported loans, commercial loans and angel investor networks.
- Business education workshops on topics chosen to help minority business owners take their businesses to the next level.
- A comprehensive, cost-effective sales and marketing opportunity for minority vendors.
- A superb networking forum for minority vendors.
